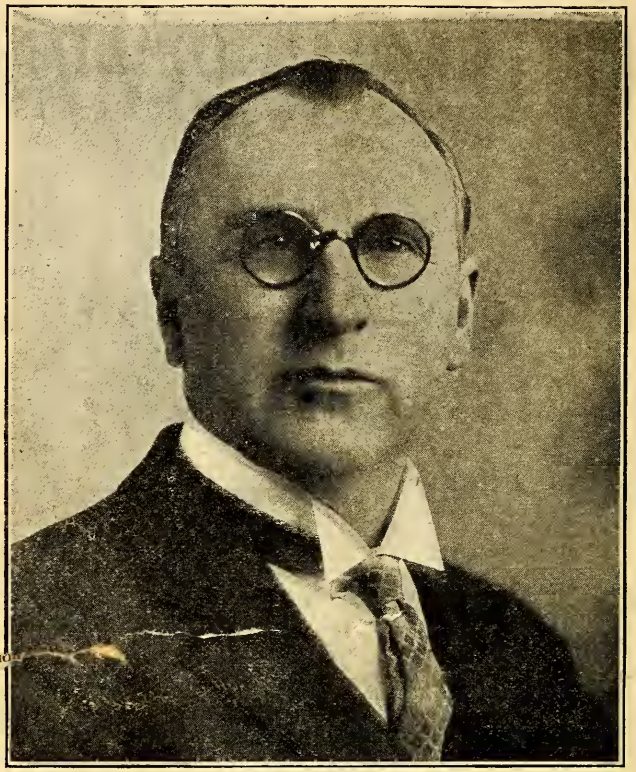
PREFACE.



JAMES D. VAUGHAN

In these last days, with the coming of our Lord so near, "even at the doors," and the glorious Millennium so rapidly approaching, let us pray earnestly that a mighty revival of "Old Time Religion" sweep over the earth to prepare the way for His coming.

This song book, MILLENNIAL REVIVAL, has been carefully edited, thanking and praising our heavenly Father that He has permitted us to live to see this day and to take part, in a small way, in the great work assigned to the Church in the world.

We would be glad to meet personally the millions of friends who have bought our books and sung our songs, but this is impossible, so we are sending the picture on this page, with greetings in the Master's name. We pray that you may all safely reach "the other side," and meet us at the Eastern Gate.

Finally, may we all be ready to meet our blessed Saviour in the air when He descends, gather with joy and gladness at the Marriage Supper of the Lamb, and return to live and reign with Him on this earth for a thousand years, and then, to all eternity.

2. Mas-ter, with an-guish of spir-it I bow in my grief to-day;
3. Mas-ter, the ter-ror is o-ver, The el-e-ments sweet-ly rest;
The sky is o'er-shad-owed with blackness, No shel-ter or help is nigh;
The depths of my sad heart are troub-led—Oh, wak-en and save, I pray!
Earth's sun in the calm lake is mir-rored, And heaven's with-in my breast;
Car-est Thou not that we per-ish? How canst Thou lie a-sleep,
Tor-rents of sin and of an-guish Sweep o'er my sink-ing soul;
Lin-ger, O bless-ed Re-deem-er! Leave me a-lone no more;
When each moment so mad-ly is threat-'ning A grave in the an-gry deep?
And I per-ish! I per-ish! dear Mas-ter—Oh, has-ten, and take con-trol.
And with joy I shall make the blest har-bor, And rest on the bliss-ful shore.

No. 143. I'M GOING HOME.

MRS. HALL BOOTH. Ad lib. ARR.

1. The road to heav'n by Christ was made, With heav'nly truth the rails were laid; From earth to heav'n the line extends, To life e-ter-nal where it ends.
2. Re-pent-ance is the sta-tion, then, Where passengers are tak-en in; No fee for them is there to pay, For Je-sus is Him-self the Way.
3. The Bi-ble is the en-gi-neer, It points the way to heav'n so clear; Thro' tunnels dark and drear-y here, It does the way to glo-ry steer.
4. Come, then, poor sinner, now's the time, At a-ny sta-tion on the line; If you re-pent and turn from sin, The train will stop and take you in.
5. And then to glo-ry we will go, With all on board as white as snow; So ring the bell and start the train, And run it thro' in Je-sus' name.

No. 166. Don't You Want To Go?

Words and music by JAMES D. VAUGHAN.

1. Don't you want to go to that hap-py home on high? Where the good shall meet, yes
2. Think how ma-ny pray'rs have been offer'd up for you, Oft-en while you slept dear
3. Time is swift-ly pass-ing, and soon will close the gate, Then your soul must sink in
4. Could you stand in judgment, if you should die to-day? All that you have writ-ten meet to part no more, And shall live and reign far a-bove the star-ry sky, mother's tears did flow; Turn and seek sal-va-tion, O to her love be true, ev-er-last-ing woe, Give your heart to Je-sus, for soon 'twill be too late,
you must face you know, Je-sus now is plead-ing, He'll wash your sins a-way, REFRAIN.
In that sun-ny clime up-on the gold-en shore.
While your friends are wait-ing, don't you want to go? Don't you want to go?
Moth-er now is wait-ing, don't you want to go?
To that home in glo-ry, don't you want to go?
Don't you want to go? While we plead and pray, make the start to-day; Je-sus bids you come to that hap-py home, Don't you want to go? Don't you want to go?

All the fit - ness! He re - quir - eth Is to feel your need of Him.
In the arms of my dear Sav - ior, Oh, there are ten thousand charms.

No. 191. HE LOVES ME.

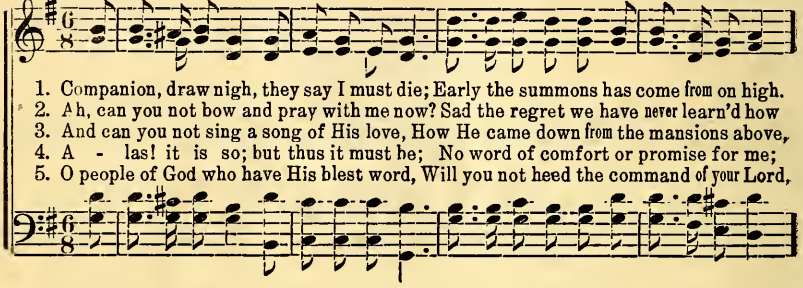
Isaac Watts. Anon.

1. A - las! and did my Sav - ior bleed, And did my Sov-'reign die?
2. Was it for crimes that I have done, He groaned up - on the tree?
3. Well might the sun in dark-ness hide, And shut his glo - ries in,
4. Thus might I hide my blush-ing face, While His dear cross ap - pears,
5. But drops of grief can ne'er re - pay The debt of love I owe;
Would He. de - vote that sa - cred head For such a worm as I?
A - maz - ing pit - y! grace un-known! And love be - yond de - gree!
When God, the might - y Mak - er, died For man, the crea-ture's sin.
Dis - solve my heart in thank - ful - ness, And melt my eyes to tears.
Here, Lord, I give my - self a - way, 'Tis all that I can do.
Chorus.
He loves me, He loves me, He loves me, this I know, (I know,)
He gave Him - self to die for me, Be - canse He loves me so.

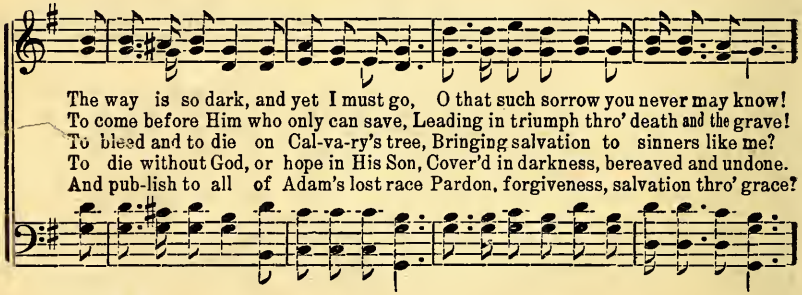
No. 192. DYING FROM HOME, AND LOST.

Two young men, who had been brought up together in a distant State, came to Kansas City to get a start in the world. They were employed in laboring on the piers of one of the great railroad bridges on the Missouri River. An accident occurred, in which several men were injured; among them was one of these young men, who was fatally crushed. He was taken into one of the tents in which the laborers were living, and, being conscious, he was told by the physician that he could live only a few hours. He requested his companion to pray with him and stated that he was not prepared to die. His friend assured him that he did not pray for himself and was not fit to pray for a dying man. Then he asked that a song might be sung, but was again assured, by his friend, that he knew no song appropriate to an occasion like that. Finally, he begged that a Bible might be brought and a few verses read to him before he died. The tents and cabins were searched, and there was not a copy of the word of God to be found, and so, among his last words the dying man exclaimed, "Ah! is it possible that away from home and without a prayer, a song, or a verse of Scripture, I am to be ushered into the presence of God unprepared?"

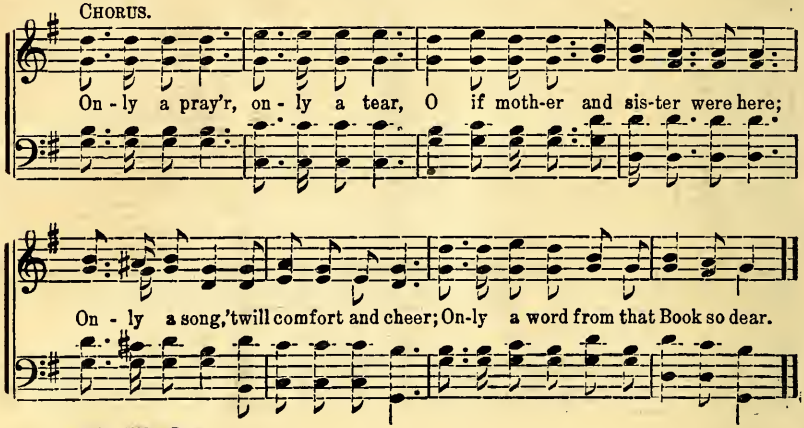
S. M. B. S. M. Brown.



1. Companion, draw nigh, they say I must die; Early the summons has come from on high.
2. Ah, can you not bow and pray with me now? Sad the regret we have never learn'd how
3. And can you not sing a song of His love, How He came down from the mansions above,
4. A - las! it is so; but thus it must be; No word of comfort or promise for me;
5. O people of God who have His blest word, Will you not heed the command of your Lord,



The way is so dark, and yet I must go, O that such sorrow you never may know!
To come before Him who only can save, Leading in triumph thro' death and the grave!
To bleed and to die on Cal-va-ry's tree, Bringing salvation to sinners like me?
To die without God, or hope in His Son, Cover'd in darkness, bereaved and undone.
And pub-lish to all of Adam's lost race Pardon, forgiveness, salvation thro' grace?



CHORUS.
On - ly a pray'r, on - ly a tear, O if moth-er and sis-ter were here;
On - ly a song, 'twill comfort and cheer; On-ly a word from that Book so dear.
